

Tough Guy

Open Hand

I feel like I've lost trust in everyone,
They say deception is the key.I want to go with you now,
I need to step away,
That's if your going my way,
I've failed again but it's ok,
The situations upside down for me.I feel like I've lost touch with everyone,
My perception is unclear,
I'll see if I can go with you again,
Things change, the old cliché,
"How's it going, same as yesterday",I want to go with you now,
I need to step away,
That's if your going my way,
I've failed again but it's ok,
The situations upside down for me,I feel so run down inside... I feel so run down.I feel like I've lost trust in everyone,
They say deception is the key.I want to go with you now,
I need to step away,
That's if your going my way,
I've failed again but it's ok,
The situations upside down for me.should I save it up inside?
Oh man, I hope I have the time,
And I want to let you know how far I was willing to go.
