Delta

The Nova Echo

you can hear my heart beat break from the nervousness shaking like a plane in the worst kind of turbulence flocks of fire flies orbiting around the skies our hands collide this nights been pinned with the perfect weather and you could be mine if you're down with forever there's a beautiful sound like a mist on fire and my heart on a thin wire the chance is now I've got you here with me and the night can go on as far as you can see and I can see myself breaking every boundary but never your heart, never you heart

this feeling in my chest is a calming pain when I'm looking in your eyes I can't complain
this feeling in my chest is a calming pain

and I've never been this far over my head and I never thought I'd ever let it happen again but in so many ways it feels so right like the wings of a dream broke the arrow tonight and this time, I'm leaning so heavily on timing
