These Days

Wet

These days I can't take too much
I've been falling down, falling behind
These days I can't take so much
I've been falling down, falling behindAnd I know what it takes
And I think we can make it
Through everything
You are all I needOh, I am away from you
Today I am away from you
Today time passed strangely
Today you don't know me, you said
Today I scare so easilyThese days I can't take too much
I've been falling down, falling behindAnd I know what it takes
And I think we can make it
Through everything
You are all I knewAnd I have your heart
I love you more
And I take a stand
And I have your handAnd I know what it takes
And I know we can make it
Through everything
You are all I needOh, I am away from you
Today I am away from you
Today I passed strangely
Today you don't know me, you said
Today I scare so easilyToday I am away from you
Today I passed strangely
Today you don't know
