

You're an Angel, and I'm Gonna Cry

Chris Thile

What do you see that's so beautiful
That it always reflects in your eyes?
The world casts no shadow
Across your sweet face
You're an angel and I'm gonna cry When I used to see you, I'd smile
The pretty girl up on the sign
Then I'd thank God for mine
Now she's leaving and I need an angel
To keep me from crying You're an angel
And I'm gonna cry
'Cause I can't have you
And I'm not gonna try I'm wasting this dream with my troubles
Let me rest in your arms for a while
Say you love me 'cause when I wake up dear
You'll just be an angel and I'm gonna cry
