I Love Lucy

Theme

And she slept with a son of a gun
He loved to lie and lie and she bought every one
Now shes up all night
I think she'll be fine as long as she wants
She counts the days to getting well
She's like a soilder on the run
While caught in the service of true love
She's watching I Love Lucy
Two times a day to set the mood
And she gave up a part of herself
She'd love to find and unwind that part of her life
Now she's up all night
I think she'll be fine as long as she wants
She talks to God to ease her mind
Talks to herself to pass the time
There's a whole other meaning to nothing you say
You seem alright ok
She's watching I Love Lucy
Two times a day to set the mood... Ohhh.....
The keys on the table collecting dust
And I wonder when she will answer us
It's nothing she did but I understand
It's no good it sucks to mend
Enough to watch I Love Lucy
Two times a day to set the mood
She's watching I Love Lucy
Three times today to shed the mood~
