All analysis B-listed on the back page
It's a crime made of mine it's a flawless shrine
It's a message to a man who's lost at his stageBe careful how you are driven, gets so easy to live
Between the gestures of the fingers that you point with Chanting, ha, ha, ha, at your favorite star
Like the menace ever liked you to begin withI'm just a kid whose time expired before the show
Unknown menace driven nightly you should know
All the mysteries just irritate and strain
