Fancy Dancer

J.J. Cale

Once a day, everyday
Sometimes all night long
She moves her body next to mine
To the rhythm of this songThey call her May, some call her June
She just needs a dancer
No matter what day you call her now
I call her Fancy DancerFancy Dancer
The way she moves, I say
If you ask, she will consent
To fancy dance all dayNo man has ever lasted out
The night along with her
The pace's too quick, the heat's too hot
She dances in a blurWhen the sun begins to fade
You might have a chance
To meet the lady of the night
She is the Fancy DancerFancy Dancer
The way she moves, I say
If you ask, she will consent
To fancy dance all dayShe draws attention from anyone
Who happens on her scene
It's mostly men who want to try out
The dancing queenFancy Dancer
The way she moves, I say
If you ask, she will consent
To fancy dance all dayFancy Dancer
The way she moves, I say
If you ask, she will consent
To fancy dance all dayFancy Dancer
The way she moves, I say
If you ask, she will consent
To fancy dance all day
