

daisy

stinkin' rich

I picked you up and lifted your wilted frame into the sun.

I was taken back, yeah i was taken back,

and by the time i caught my breath,

you had blossomed into something that i did not expect.

and if it takes all night,

I swear i'll wait,

for you,

forever.

sunlight, sunshine,

all for you my daisy.

we're getting this before you leave,

all for you my daisy.

you're a wreck and you know,

you've got me wrapped around your finger, like a boy tangled in vines,

but I've figured you out.

and now we're here,

we're so confused,

and i wish that there was some way that i could tell you.

and if it takes all night,

I swear I'll wait,

for you,

forever.

sunlight, sunshine,

all for you my daisy.

we're getting this before you leave,

all for you my daisy.

[x3]all for, all for, all for you my daisy

sunlight, sunshine,

all for you my daisy.

we're getting this before you leave,

all for you my daisy
