

Smoker Scoff

He Is Legend

I am an unfolded paper plane i should be balled up and thrown away i have no message to display Blank as the blue sky only deserving the flameinhaleexhaleI'm acting vindictively i need you addicted to me In through your mouth
breathe in, breathe out hurry now cause i won't last I'm burning embers and scattered ash
In through your mouth
breathe in, breathe outWithout a cover to hide my face i'd rather be smoke than a torn out page one night inside you is a crime that pays black as the night sky happy to be blown awayinhaleexhaleI'm acting vindictively
i need you addicted to me
breathe in, breathe out
hurry now cause i won't last
I'm burning embers and scattered ash
In through your mouth
breathe in, breathe outi should be smokedYou've always been the fire to light me up You've always been the flame i need You've always been the fire to light me up you've always been the flame for me.
