Pink

Emily Haines

Don't say this:
"Leave me with your brown boots behind the door and come to bed.
Everybody lies, I never said I'd be happy"
Don't say it, don't injure your mouth trying to show me
Where you've been. I've seen everything
You can't ambush behind the tomcat grin
Sad sad, tomcat
That's how it is void in your ears
Watching the feet while the song dissapearsDon't say this:
"Put on your best suit, wash and go.
Get out of my head.
Everybody lies but let's be happy
I am gorgeous, pink and skimpy
Let's be famous let's be happy, and obnoxious
Thick and skinny, rich and famous"That's how it is void in your ears
Watching the moon as the sky disappears
That's all there is, that's all I know
Got a couple of friends, say I told you so
