

Every Little Bit o' You

The Partridge Family

Just a little bit

Just a little bit

Just a little bit There's a little bit of you in every girl I run into

In every girl I ever knew and since that day

We went our own way, it's true

There's a whole lot of me still hung on every little bit of you

Just a little bit There's a little bit of you in every tender night I share

They can't see that you're still there, one look in my eyes

And they realize it's true

There's a whole lot of me still hung on every little bit of you

Just a little bit Now one girl has your smile so we smile for a little while

One girl has your touch so we touch, yeah we touched

'Til I found she really didn't have your touch

That's when I knew I missed you a little too much There's still a little bit of hope hidin' down in this old heart of mine

Whispering there'll be another time, I looked around

And what I found just won't do

'Cause there's a whole lot of me still hung on every little bit of you Just a little bit

Just a little bit

Just a little bit There's a little bit of you in every girl I run into

Every girl I ever knew and since that day

We went our own way, it's true

There's a whole lot of me still hung on every little bit of you Just a little bit

Just a little bit

Just a little bit All I ever really wanted, all that I needed is just you

There's a whole lot of me still hung on every little bit of you

Oh, just a little bit, baby, all I ever wanted, all I ever needed

All I ever wanted, all I ever needed, yeah
