

You and Me

Aretha Franklin

(You and me)
Will always be
Joined together for eternity
(You and me)
Will always be
Joined together for eternity We've got each other's love and understanding
That's what it takes to make love grow
We've got our strength, and our love for all mankind
But most of all, we've got peace of mind I know people are gonna try and knock us down
But we're gonna be strong, ain't gon' let nobody turn us around (You and me)
Will always be
Joined together for eternity, yeah now
(You and me)
Will always be
Joined together for eternity You know temptation, it works on us too
But we're too strong to let it get us down
I've got your love, baby, and you've got mine
And the Lord knows we're gonna be together 'til the end of time, hey, hey I know people are gonna try to knock us down
But we're gonna be strong, ain't gon' let nobody turn us around, oh (You and me)
Will always be
Joined together for eternity
(You and me)
Will always be
Joined together for eternity (You and me)
(Will always be)
(Joined together for eternity)
(You and me)
(Will always be)
(Joined together for eternity)
