Last Resort

E3

I'm gunna pray, i'm gunna pray for my love..
I'm gunna pray, i'm gunna pray for my love..

It seems so many days im longing for, those pretty eyes, those pretty eyes.
And every day I seem to hunger for those beautiful eyes, and in my heart i know that you're for me, and i should be for you, oh its true..
Oh but all the little games you play, it seems you play them every day, nothing that i do ever seems to work, im down to my last resort so...

I'm gunna pray, i'm gunna pray for my love
I'm gunna pray, i'm gunna pray for my love

Baby dont you know, im the one you need, hold on to your heart, it'll set your mind at eas.
You should know that all the things thats going on, it should be, you and me.
In my heart i know, that you're for me, and i should be for you, oh its true..
Yea but all the little games you play, it seems you play them every day, nothing that i do ever seems to work, i'm down to my last resort...

im gunna pray, im gunna pray for my love
im gunna pray, im gunna pray for my love
