

Yellin' From the Rooftop

Danielle Bradbery

Yellin' from the rooftop
Tellin' the whole world
Yellin' from the rooftop
Mommas little baby gonna be your girl Love struck me out of nowhere
Like lightning from the sky
I wasn't even lookin' for the look in your eye Glory hallelujah
I feel like I've been saved
Watchin' in the river of your real love waves
Its somethin' that I've never felt
And I cant keep it to myself [Chorus]
You've got me yellin' from the rooftop
So everybody knows
I'm fallin' for ya baby never lettin' you go
I'm screamin' from the mountains
Gonna sing it everywhere
Yeah you can call me crazy baby I don't care
Can you hear me hear me yellin' from the rooftop
Tellin' the whole world
Mommas little babys gonna be your girl You can call me lady lucky
I know I've been blessed
You kiss and got my heart beatin' out of me chest
Its easy like breathin'
You make me come alive
But its a whole lot more than just a feelin' inside
Its beyond a shadow of a doubt
So its true I gotta let it out [Chorus] Tellin' the whole world
I'm fallin' for you baby You've got me yellin' from the rooftop
So everybody knows
I'm fallin' for you baby never ever ever lettin' you go You've got me yellin' from the rooftop
