Automatic Man

Bad Religion

He's the latest superhero with powers so profound
He leaped a dotted line in just a single bound
I know you must have seen him in books and magazines
He's quintessential, mindless, modern, epicineHis life is meaningful
Because he gets things done
(Bang bang)

Rang bang be's dead

(Bang bang)
Bang bang he's dead
(Bang bang)

Chalk up another triumph for our heroThe automatic manIt's true you must have met him He's your best friend and your foe

His opinions are determined

By the status quoA true creature of habit

He smokes three packs a day

When he has an original thought

He forgets it right awayHe's the automatic manHe's a paradigm of carefree living

He's our mentor, disturb him if you can

He's the answer if your peace of mind is lacking

He's our savior, he is the common man

And if you are troubled by the daily bump and grind

Then take a careful look around and brother you will find The automatic man
