

Neon

Frida Sundemo

I'm safe without words
In silence, in calm I'm swimming in oceansThe streets are asleep
But time's running wild It's always in motionFrom my heart to my bones to the depth of my soul Alive more than everI'm caught in a dream and barely awake
We are always and ever lit up by neon
For all the good and all the bad
For all the times of I've lost my head
I let it all out to the sky
For all the right and all the wrong
now all my parts are fused to one
I let it all out to the sky
We're lit up by neonStay close a little while Hold me and I will be sharing my secretsThe view is great from up high and I'll never come down
We are always and ever
lit up by neon
For all the good and all the bad
For all the times of I've lost my head
I let it all out to the sky
For all the right and all the wrong
now all my parts are fused to one
I let it all out to the sky
We're lit up by neon
