Secret Life (You and Me)

The Strange Familiar

I remember when you walked into my secret life
I remember holding hands for the very first time
I remember when you kissed me and
I was so scared but some how I knew that you would always be there
And I remember everything

I don't know what life will bring tomorrow
But I want you there next to me
I don't know where I'll be tomorrow
But I'll remember you and me (you and me)

I remember dancing in your arms all night
I was staring into your eyes in a circle of light
I remember your laugh and how we cried sometimes
I remember everything
I don't know what life will bring tomorrow
But I want you there next to me
I don't know where I'll be tomorrow
But I'll remember you and me (you and me)

Leafs will change the world is rearranged
Why do we all have to grow up so fast
People come and go, walk in and out of your life
The ones that you really treasure
Will be with you for all time (time)

And I know all the odds are staked against us
But I know the rules don't apply to love
I do know that you came to rescue me from my secret life

I don't know what life will bring tomorrow
But I want you there next to me
I don't know where I'll be tomorrow
But I'll remember you and me (you and me)

I remember you and me
You and me
