

More and More

Blood, Sweat & Tears

Oh hey yeah yeah yeah
Like medicine baby, you're good for me
Like honey, darling' girl, I know you're sweet to me
Each passing day brings us much closer together
And the love you give me darling' just gets better and better That's why my love for you keep on growing'
More and more, all the time
More and more, all the time, yeah
Gonna say it again, now, now, now Like a ship that's driftin' babe, you're apart from me
Like old man time you control my destiny
If from my life you ever tried to go
It would destroy in a second what took a lifetime to mold And that's why my love for you just keeps on growing'
More and more, all the time
Hey, more and more, all the time
Let me hear ya, hey, yeah Let me hear ya now, hey, more and more
Yeah [Incomprehensible]
Yeah, yeah, there's a pretty woman
Got something to tell you Sure as a sunrise, I'll stand by your side
Sure as the daybreak, I'll love you for Heaven's sake
I'm ready to pay, yeah my dues for loving' you
For loving' you too much woman, you know I stand accused More, more, all the time
More and more, yeah oh hey
Take my world, girl
