Zero

Catman Cohen

I was born pale and invisible
In a world
Sees everything
Everything, everything.but meInvisible to your touch
And doubt youll like me very much
Am I alive?
Was I ever me?Im a non-existent cipher
A pointless empty zero
Never added up to anything
A non-existent cipher
Pointless empty zero
Tell me.what does it all mean?And now I think I want you
Ethereal body
Oblivious mask
And now I think I love you
Intelligent lips
Painted in blackBut no need to look my way
Or give me the time of dayCant be with you
In this world
Invisible man
Never gets the girlOh, no...Ill find where you are
And watch from afar
You will be felt by meIll find where you are
And watch from afar
You will be loved by meYour
Zero
Tonight
Your
Zero
For life
Your zero
The day I dieYour zero.your zeroZero
