The Real Me

Winterborn

You don't know me at all, I'm the beast in disguise
I cheat, I lie
You put your faith in me, you're too blind, can't you see
The lies and deceitI abuse your weakness, I force you to feed my conceitAnd you don't know me at all
I won't be there when you fall
I am the beast in disguise
You haven't seen the real me, through the liesI got you under my spell, I will drag you to my hell
I'm the wall in your cell
I'll be the master of your dreams, I control your every plea
I pull all the stringsThere's no good reason, there's no good reasons
Temptations that will lead us to sinAnd you don't know me at all
I won't be there when you fall
I am the beast in disguise
You haven't seen the real me, through the liesI'm your master, I control your every pleaBeware, watch outAnd you don't know me at all
I won't be there when you fall
I am the beast in disguise
You haven't seen the real me, through the liesI'm the beast
In disguise
I control
