

Sweet Lies

Wilkinson

Softly, here upon my pillow
When our words are spoken
You're here with me alone
Your kiss, ignorance is my place
We're gonna say something sweet
When you're all I have to hold So tell me those sweet lies
I'm not giving up your love
As long as they're sweet lies
I wanna hold, I wanna hold onto your sweet lies
I'm not giving up your love
And nothing but sweet lies
Look me in the eye, could you tell me
We're just another love we can leave behind?
Look me in the eye, could you tell me
Is there really love here or just sweet lies?
Look me in the eye could you tell me
I'm just another love you can leave behind?
Look me in the eye, could you tell me
Is there really love here or just sweet lies? Fearless though we live in secret
I only live for your touch
Enough love for the both of us
Wasting, impossible to face it
Can we give in to the symptoms?
To never-ever wanna let you go So tell me those sweet lies
I'm not giving up your love
As long as they're sweet lies
I wanna hold, I wanna hold onto your sweet lies
I'm not giving up your love
And nothing but sweet lies Look me in the eye, could you tell me
We're just another love we can leave behind?
Look me in the eye, could you tell me
Is there really love here or just sweet lies?
Look me in the eye could you tell me
I'm just another love you can leave behind?
Look me in the eye, could you tell me So tell me those sweet lies
I'm not giving up your love
As long as they're sweet lies
I wanna hold, I wanna hold onto your sweet lies
I'm not giving up your love

And nothing but sweet lies
