

Southern Nights

The Generators

That girls a southern bell
Breaks hearts and she does it well
She will bring a man down
Right down to his knees
Born and raised in Tennessee
By her hard working daddy
She left the farm when
When she was just sventeenSouthern nights wont be the same
Stars fall like drops of rain
Tears tumble right from her eyes
Shes crossing over the country line
Her new day has finally dawned
This beauty queens moving on
Country roads - so longStarted stripping in a Nashville bar
Went to Dallas and stripped some more
Ahe took it all off to make her way to the top
Breaking hearts along the way
From Talahassee to San Jose
Ent to California to try to get her big shotSouthern nights wont be the same
Stars fall like drops of rain
The big cities out to drag her down
Chew her up and striped her out
Now shes missing now those jackson pines
Smokey mountains in the summer time
So far away from those southern nights
