

Every Train That Passes

seasonal its gonna change seasonal its back and forth again cure the cause cause will change cure it all will be back again seasonal its all the same seasonal right here seasonal youre gonna change seasonal right in front of me feel you made a mistake see these colors will change right in front of me the stars have warned if the stars are made while the sailors gone then the bow will break around the lunar moon if the sun has changed by the time im gone then im to blame for the set of one and the stars were made right in front of me
