

Love Is the Only Thing

Chuck Prophet

Chuck Prophet
Love
All you true believers
All you wild receivers
Anyone who calls this world their home
When the war is over
I'll still be your brother
Maybe we can sort the right from the wrong
Let me put it back the way that it was Aah let me turn the lights on just because
Love is a hurting thing
I thought love is the only thing any more
All you American dreamers
All you gay deceivers
Who will cross their hearts and hope to die?
Bring your x-ray vision
From the bedroom to the kitchen
I've seen it all you don't have to be shy
Aah who will put it back the way that it was?
And who will turn the lights on just because?
Love is a hurting thing
I thought love is the only thing any more
All you happy hookers
All you night club bookers
Anyone how has fallen from their throne
There's a rainbow in the gutter
Two drops on the shutters
I'm out here in the garden and I'm all alone
Let me put it back the way that it was
Aah let me turn the lights off just because
