Give me love or leave me alone
If you have to struggle
Just take your ass home
Give me your love or leave me alone
You don't have to worry
Just take your ass home Home (oh, give it up)
Home (give me love!)
Home (go on home)
Home (give me love...)
I love you, when I try for you
When I put myself on the side for you
And I cry for you and I'd kill for you
Something inside me died cos' you
Cos you couldn't tell the truth
My mama ain't raise me like that
My mama ain't raise me like that
My mama ain't raise me like that
My mama ain't raise me like that And you can't take it back, once you give it
So go on home, go on home, go on home
So go on home, go on home, go on home
