Speak To Yourself

Cable35

I'm gonna take what's mine by right tonight,
And you're falling.
Time and time I said you crossed the line,
Now you're falling.Got to meet the man inside, a mental ride, suicide.
And you go around and round and round and round.Speak to yourself!Speak to yourself! Speak to yourself!
Speak to yourself! Speak to your!Pardon me If I fail to crack a smile,
When you're falling.
Concentration is harder to come by,
When you're fallingGotta meet the man inside, a mental ride, suicide.
And you go around and round and round and round.Speak to yourself!Speak to yourself! Speak to yourself!
Speak to yourself! Speak to you!Come on turn around, turn around, turn around turn a!
sas sara se, sas sa raConflicting thoughts rush through my mind,
And you're falling.
Nothing's left to say for you and I,
And you're falling.Got to meet the man inside, a mental ride, suicide.
And you go around and round and round and round.Speak to yourself!Speak to yourself! Speak to yourself!
Speak to yourself! Speak to your!Come on turn around, turn around, turn around turn a!
sas sara se, sas sa ra!I can smile, I can me sarcastic,
Can laugh I can be neurotic.Come on turn around, turn around, turn around turn a!
sas sara se, sas sa ra!I'm gonna take what's mine by right tonight.Cable35 - 35 - malta - hygiene - rock - punk - music - song - radio - grunge - tv - listen - lyrics - band - alternative - boogie man - ep - mary - harry - greg's tools - video - positive - speak to yourself - you're falling
