

Follow the Light

Travis

Nobody really knows
Where they're supposed to go
Hiding behind the wall
Afraid that they'll lose it all But it's alright, just follow the light
And don't be afraid of the dark
In the moonlight, you'll dance till you fall
And always be here in my heart But nobody wants to know
'Cos nobody even cares
Everyone's on the make
And everyone's out for themselves Me, I'm on the longest road
Where everything's overload
But I've got my heart and soul
So don't throw me overboard 'Cos it's alright, just follow the light
And don't be afraid of the dark
In the moonlight, you'll dance till you fall
And always be here in my heart 'Cos it's alright, just follow the light
And don't be afraid of the dark
In the moonlight, you'll dance till you fall
And always be here in my heart 'Cos it's alright
Alright now
And you're alright
And we're alright now
