Spin Me Round

Roxy Music

(ferry)
Now the ballroom´s empty
Everybody I have known
Has been and gone
With the music over
Here am i
A shadow echoing on
Spin me round...
Now there must be something
In what they say of all things
Great and small
There´s dozen roses

Lying almost dying
To say all
Spin me round...
A nether world dancing toy
I´m wired for sound
Does it matter to me
Who turns the key?
Now if life is for living
Then the way is clear
But I don´t understand
Why the dream has ended
Yet I can´t wake up
Lend a hand -
Spin a round...
