Same Ol' Same Ol'

David Lee Murphy

She was layin? there starin? at the ceilin?
Thinkin? ?bout all she didn't wanna do today
Alarm clock finally quit ringin?
Wasn't gettin? no attention anyway
She?s just tired of that weddin? ring
Yeah she?s tired of four gray walls
She?s fed up with just ?bout everything
That?s all, hey you know, that?s all
It?s the same ol?, same ol? every night
I got to have a change of scenery
It?s the same ol?, same ol? every night
One of these days she just might leave
Little dress hangin? in the back of her closet
She could slip away and put it on Long tan legs as smooth as silk
She knows what she?s thinkin?s wrong
She?s just tired of the way it is Yeah she?s tired what she?s goin? through
She?s fed up with the life she?s missed
She?s feelin? used, she?s just too used
To the same ol?, same ol? every night
I got to have a change of scenery
It?s the same ol?, same ol? every night
One of these days she just might leave
Oh and she?s tired of this runnin? ?round
And she?s tired of bein? left alone
She?s had enough of bein? held down
While he?s on the town, she?s wantin? out
It?s the same ol?, same ol? every night
I got to have a change of scenery
It?s the same ol?, same ol? every night
One of these days she just might leave
It?s the same ol?, same ol? every night
I got to have a change of scenery
Yes it?s the same ol?, same ol? every night
One of these days she just might leave
Better believe me
