

He Died for Me

Malcolm Williams & Great Faith

He died for me he died for me im so glad he died for me i don't know where I would be if Jesus had not died for me he died for me he died for me im so glad he died for me I don't know where I would be if Jesus had not died for me he was despised and rejected a man of sorrow acquitted with plea he was wooed for my transgressions then was bruised for my inequities he died for me he died for me he died for me im so glad he died for me I don't know where I would be if Jesus had not died for me he was despised and rejected a man of sorrow acquitted with plea he was wooed for my transgressions then was bruised for my inequities he died for me he died for me im so glad he died for me I don't know where I would be if Jesus had not died for me. Sopranos he died for me he died for me he died me he died for me he died for me he died for me he died for me he died for me altos he died for me he died for me he died for me he died for me he died for me tenors he died for me he died for he died for me he died for me he died for me he died for me he died for me he died for me everyone he died for me he died for me he died for me he died for me he died for me. Im so glad he died for me I don't know where I would be if Jesus had not died for me

Lyrics Submitted by Deante

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>