I Love the Islands

Savage

Word! Why! Hey
Here we go....
For the man from the Islands...
Savage where is at?I wanna go back to the Islands Back to the roots Pack my bags up and be there soon coconut trees and island breeze and nothing but white sand up under my feet Just chill relax and just stay still Be like baby d and walk around in a kilt A kilt in samoan its ie lavalava Cos its too hot for your jeans my brother Its something like 100 degrees so when it gets hot I'm dip in the sea put snorkels on swim in the reef yea i love water like fish when they breathe now i'm gonna roll like a pair of dice up in the plains in my paradise come experience that island life cmon its something i know you gonna like becosIts the one place that everyone wants to go Come see the tropics is the place I get to call my home Love the islands
I love the islands oohh one place that i get to call my homeBack to islands, back to the motherland Thats where mum step-dad & my brothers at thats family bond and when i step out the house i got my jandals on i'm from the island of samoa the heart of the pacific the home of romance and passionate kisses hot summer breeze coming from the sea thats the bomb place where i wanna be chillin in shade ice tea n lemonade man i could do this like everyday hell yea damn i love the islands you don't even need money you can off the land build a little house than grow from that everytime you leave you don't wanna come back
