

The Price I Pay

Troy Olsen

I always do the wrong thing
But for a very good reason
Always do it wrong
But it feels right
So forgive me now
And forgive me later
I'll pay you back
I always do the wrong thing, but
I got a good reason
I always do the wrong thing, but
It feels right
I always do the wrong thing, but
I got a good reason
I could have it, but I walked away
Now I won't miss out, not even one day
What I lost off the line
I bring back all in my good time
There ain't no other way
Because this is the price
It's the price
Always the price I pay
I see you, you're going places
So, let's get the hell out of here
I'm a big liver man at the table
I got my long cunt drawn
I'm able to lay you out
There ain't no other way
Because this is the price
It's the price
Always the price I pay
Always having a good time
Always searchin' for more
I'm flying now, I'm paying later
I'm flying now
I'm layin' in a bath of hot water
Hot water always my case
Well, finally nothing to say
Just put the cloth right over my face
There ain't no other way

Because this is, always the price

It's the price

Always the price that I pay

I got to thrust it out

The price that I pay

I got to get it out

Always

Always the price that I pay
