

Love Takes Over

Tommy Page

I wanted you from the start
I never told you anything different
You tried to warn my heart
But I couldn't listen to the words
You said you don't feel the same
Well every time I hear your nameLove takes over, over, over, over
And I lose control
Love takes over, over, over, over
My heart and soulEvery time I see your face
I tell myself I've got it together
Still I watch every move you make
Guess I'm not getting any better
'Cause I can't forget that you don't feel the same
Well, every time I hear your nameLove takes over, over, over, over
And I lose control
Love takes over, over, over, over
My heart and soulIf only, you'd give me
One chance to hold you
I'd do it now
I'd show you how, howLove takes over, over, over, over
And I lose control
Love takes over, over, over, over
My heart and soulLove takes over, over, over, over
And I lose control
Love takes over, over, over, over
My heart and soulLove takes over, over, over, over
And I lose control
Love takes over, over, over, over
My heart and soulLove takes over, over, over, over
And I lose control
Love takes over, over, over, over
My heart and soulLove takes over, over, over, over
And I lose control
Love takes over, over, over, over
My heart and soulLove takes my control
