Some Days

Jamestown Story

I've failed one too many times
I bought in to find the truth in lies
Some days I feel I'm on my own
Nowhere left to go

I was raised to be an honest man
To stand my ground
When the world don't give a damn
But some days I feel I'm on my own
Nowhere left to go

I'm too proud to ask for someone's help
I've found my own worst enemy's myself
We are all in search of heaven
But some days all we find is hell

I've loved and seen it turn to loss
And what I paid was far beyond the cost
I've changed but still I'm on my own
Nowhere left to go

I'm too proud to ask for someone's help
I've found my own worst enemy's myself
We are all in search of heaven
But some days all we find is hell

I've failed one too many times
And I've lost the will to make things right
Some days I feel I'm on my own
Nowhere left to go

I'm too proud to ask for someone's help
I've found my own worst enemy's myself
We are all in search of heaven
But some days all we find is hell

Lyrics Submitted by Ewelina

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/