Ain't No Telling

The Temperance Movement

Sing Halleluja
Girl you know it ain't so bad
I wanna thank you for the time that we had
Let me Tell you about a
Little revolution circling round my brain
I'll tell you all about it if you ever see me again.There ain't no telling when the storm comes mamma
You best be praying that we make it through
There ain't no telling when the storm comes babe
You know I've got a burning Heart for you
There ain't no telling when the storm comes mamma
You best be praying that we make it through
There ain't no telling when the storm comes Mamma
But the sun still shines tooMaking Restitution For all the things that we got wrong
I gotta let you go to let you be strong
And I know there aint no use singing for the summer
When the skys are turning gray
The more I try the more I get in the wayThere ain't no telling when the storm comes mamma
You best be praying that we make it through
There ain't no telling when the storm comes babe
You know I've got a burning Heart for you
There ain't no telling when the storm comes mamma
You best be praying that we make it through
There ain't no telling when the storm comes Mamma
But the sun still shines too
