Paper Cuts

Runner Runner

She's an angel in disguise
You can see it in her eyes
I could never give up the fight
And I'll be waiting at her door
But I don't wanna wait no more
So take me right now

Who do you want?
It's more than a crush
Loving you only gave me paper cuts
Something so real
Taught me never to trust
Loving you only gave me paper cuts
You gave me paper cuts

Now I'm walking close behind
Keep rehearsing all my lines
If she'd turn around just one time
I could tell her how I feel
That we need to make this real
So give me a chance to be here right now
(Be here right now)

Who do you want?
It's more than a crush
Loving you only gave me paper cuts
Something so real
Taught me never to trust
Loving you only gave me paper cuts
You gave me paper cuts
You gave me paper cuts

I've got nothing to talk about
It's out of my head now
These are the last words I'll write to you
Stuck in the real world
Caught in the typical
Now if she only had a clue

Who do you want?

(Who do you want?)
It's more than a crush
It's more than just paper cuts

Who do you want?
It's more than a crush
Loving you only gave me paper cuts
Something so real
Taught me never to trust
Loving you only gave me paper cuts

Who do you want?
It's more than a crush
Loving you only gave me paper cuts
Something so real
Taught me never to trust
Loving you only gave me paper cuts
You gave me paper cuts
You gave me paper cuts
You gave me paper cuts
(paper cuts)
