

Break My Heart Again

Montgomery Gentry

How many Mrs. Rights have I handled wrong?
Every one that's come along
How many finish lines have I had in sight and never crossed?
Everyone I ever saw When it looks like I might win
I go and break my heart again Things aren't good unless their bad
And I ain't happy 'til I'm sad
When I see the good life closing in
I go and break my heart, break my heart again Why do I think I can when I know I won't?
I always end up alone
Why would a lonely man hold love in his hands and let it go?
Well I don't know All I know is in the end
I go and break my heart again Things aren't good unless their bad
And I ain't happy 'til I'm sad
When I see the good life closing in
I go and break my heart, break my heart again Things aren't good unless their bad
And I ain't happy 'til I'm said
When I see the good life closing in
I go and break my heart, break my heart again And I break my heart again
And I break my heart again
And I break my heart again

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>