Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Lately when the sun falls down in L.A
Its the summer of our love
Thought Id been trying hard enough but Somehow it still came undone I miss your bones
Now Im a ghost I know, I know, I know, I know I said
I cant believe my eyes
I wont drop it
Shes got me twisted in love
All tangled in a rope Damn, this is it
Now my target is locked
Soon enough she will get hers
But now I know its just a matter of time
Until I make her come I miss your bones
Now Im a ghost I know, I know, I know, I know I said
I cant believe my eyes
I wont drop it
Shes got me twisted in love
All tangled in a rope I know, I know, I know, I know I said
I cant believe my eyes
I wont drop it
Shes got me twisted in love
All tangled in a rope I know, I know, I know, I know I said
I cant believe my eyes
I wont drop it
Shes got me twisted in love
All tangled in a rope I know, I know, I know, I know I said
I cant believe my eyes
I wont drop it
Shes got me twisted in love
All tangled in a rope I know, I know, I know, I know I said
I cant believe my eyes
I wont drop it

Shes got me twisted in love
All tangled in a ropeLately when the sun falls down in L.A
Its the summer of our love
