

Quiet

Dani Bell & The Tarantist

I've been dreaming dreams of the past
Nothing was as it seemed
I knew that it wouldn't last
Wasn't all it should be
Living like I thought you knew best
But it wasn't for me
Now you see how far we've regressed

I'm waking up from this dream

Waking up from this dream
Waking up from this dream

Summon subtle secrets of sleep
Something revealed to me
Those sirens singing softly
Singing this dream gently
And I translate their silent sighs
Told me to wake myself
And stare deeply into your eyes

And tell you I wish you well
Tell you I wish you well
Tell you I wish you well

Quiet
All we need is quiet
It will be alright my love tonight
Quiet
All we need is quiet
It will be alright my love goodnight
