The Gentleman

Pig Destroyer

what do you think of me do you really want to see a piece of me that I hide something that's hard to find what's behind your smile is it really worth my while what's beneath your ton-bed skin open up and let me indo you really want to feel something that is so unreal do you really want to be the one and only one for me when we go to sleep tonight i'll have different goals in sight tell you what you want to hear have another drink my dear i'm not going to try to hurt you i'll be honest kind and true i'll take you out and treat you right like a decent man would donow i got you in my grasp do not fear my checkered past have you now begun to see this diabolic side of me in your mind I'm always there I guess you thought I really cared now it's time to say goodbye you bit the hook believed the lie i'm not going to try to hurt you I'll be honest kind and true i'll take you out and treat you right like a decent man would dogonna modify my behavior to make you think I'm your savior now that I'm inside your head i'm gonna use you probably abuse you should have listened to what your mom said
i'm not going to try to hurt you
like a decent man would doyeah right!
