

Angels / Your Love (feat. BJ the Chicago Kid)

Mr Jukes

Sleep under moonlight, 'til summer's gone
Gazing at stars bright, wake before the dawn
See all the angels, circle above
If you were able, you could be my love
Sleep under moonlight, 'til summer's gone
Gazing at stars bright, wake before the dawn
See all the angels, circle above
If you were able, you could be my love
It makes no sense, traveling the distance
To get so far and something's been missing
I thought I was good but I really wasn't living
'Cause I ain't had the feeling you're giving
Thinking 'bout your love
(Now I feel it taking over me)
Thinking 'bout your love
(Now I feel it taking over me)
Thinking 'bout your love
(Now I feel it taking over me)
Baby, I need your love
(Now I feel it taking over me)
Your love
Yeah, my love
(Now I feel it taking over me)
Yeah, would you be my love? (my love?)
(Now I feel it taking over me)
My baby, b-baby, my love
(Now I feel it taking over me)
Yeah, would you be my love? (would you be?)
(Now I feel it taking over me)
(Would you be) my love, baby?
(Now I feel it taking over me)
Would you be my love?
(Now I feel it taking over me)
(Yeah, yeah) My love (be my love, baby)
(Now I feel it taking over me)
Ooh, would you be my love?
(Now I feel it taking over me)
My love
