

Damaged

Antillas/Fiora

    Didn't You hurt yourself?
    Couldn't You wash the blood away?
        Didn't You love yourself?
        (God, God, God, God, God)
        Couldn't You see the truth?
        Didn't You wake to see the light?
        Couldn't You hear the truth?
        (God, God, God, God, God)
        God, You're so shameless
    Stand up to me, I know what You'll say
        God, You're so shameless
    Why don't You wake up and stop all the pain?
    How could You really know as Your blood flows
        The damage left inside?
    If You should ever see the pain in me
        You'd wish it away
        Didn't You hurt yourself?
        Didn't You love yourself?
        (God, God, God, God, God)
        Couldn't You find yourself?
        Such a shame, it's a waste of life
        Couldn't You save yourself?
        (God, God, God, God, God)
        God, You're so shameless
    Stand up to me, I know what You'll say
        God, You're so shameless
    Why don't You wake up and stop all the pain?
    How could You really know as Your blood flows
        The damage left inside?
    If You should ever see the pain in me
        You'd wish it away
        How could You really know as Your blood flows
        The damage left inside?
    If You should ever see the pain in me
        You'd wish it away
        God, You're so shameless
        God, You're so shameless
        God, You're so shameless
    Stand up to me, I know what You'll say

God, You're so shameless
Why don't You wake up and stop all the pain
How could You really know as Your blood flows
    The damage left inside?
If You should ever see the pain in me
    You'd wish it away
How could You really know as Your blood flows
    The damage left inside?
If You should ever see the pain in me
    You'd wish it away
How could You really know?
How could You really know?
