Hey Look At the Sun

Sitti

All of my life there were things I wanted to do
But they all changed the moment I set my eyes on you
The magnetism that attracted me to you
Theres something inside I just cant explain
But now I know what I must do[chorus]
Hey look at the sun its finally shining on my life
Its shining on my life
And its all because of you
Its finally shining on my life
For me and for youAll of my life Ive wandered round time and again
But I never thought that all my searchin would come to an end
And then you came along
And my world of love began
So now Im gonna change my ways
Youre all I want
Youre all I need[repeat chorus]
