

Send You My Love

Maoli

The moment I laid eyes on you
I knew that there was something to do
Your pretty eyes has captured me
I wonder if I would ever see you again
So I walked up to you gracefully
Just hoping that you wanted to be my girl
But then you told me that you leaving tomorrow
I don't mind
I just hope that you keep me near your heart

(Chorus)

And let me send all my love to you baby
Tell me would it be alright?
To give all my love to you lady
I know it would be so nice
To send all my love to you baby
Tell me that you wouldn't mind
I send you my love
Ooh I send you my love
Ooh mm

I wanna be the man for you
Give me a chance so I can prove
I know only have a moment together
But that's all I need it to be
So baby can we compromise
Cuz' I can see the loneliness in your eyes
Help me understanding the meaning of true love
And I can be the man you really want me to be

(Chorus)

And let me send all my love to you baby
Tell me would it be alright?
To give all my love to you lady
I know it would be so nice
To send all my love to you baby
Tell me that you wouldn't mind

I send you my love
Ooh I send you my love

And I want you to send me your love
I wanna give you all my love
