Somewhere, sometime, all things will be fine
And it never seems to stop Wonder if I've met my wife? Somewhere, sometime, all things will be fine
And it never seems enough Wonder if I've met my wife?
Splinter left, focus right, focus right This mortal soil around me, mortal feeling I have found
Surrounded by your glory, hold me now so that I never drown And it never seems to stop Somewhere, sometime Wonder if I've met my wife?
Splinter left, focus right, focus right, focus right
