

Taller Than Tall Trees

Mirel Wagner

See a girl dressed as a woman
Here's a man who lies
See that girl fall apart
Soon as his shadow touches her heart I climbed a thousand stairs just to give you a kiss
God you're so tall, taller than tall trees
I wanna make babies with you
Fall under that big, big blue See a boy walk like a lover
Here's a hand that guides
And that shadow that leads him on
Will die with kindness you pay with our soul
I climbed two thousand stairs just to give you a kiss
God you're so tall, taller than tall trees
I wanna lay down with you
Fall under that big, big moon See a girl dressed as a woman
Here's a man who lies
See that girl fall apart
Soon as his shadow touches her heart I climbed two thousand stairs just to give you a kiss
God you're so tall, taller than tall trees
I wanna lay down with you
Fall under that big, big moon I climbed two thousand stairs just to give you a kiss
God you're so tall, taller than tall trees
I wanna lay down with you
Fall under that big, big blue
See a girl dressed as a lover
Here's a hand that guides
See that girl fall apart
Soon as his shadow touches her heart
