My Life

Lucy Rose

Can you see what we are made of?
Stars aligned when I found you, you
Cause now I've tasted you, I won't move on Cause you are what I want
Everything I wantThis is my life
And I give it all to you
My only life
And it's written down here for you
Please don't tell me if I hurt you
I'm too scared to know I've done you harm, harm
Cause now I've noticed, since you've been gone
Waiting for return, hoping to have learnedThis is my life
And I give it all to you
My only life
And it's written down here for youDarling please turn around
I'm learning fast that I'm found
Darling please turn around
I'm learning fast that I'm found
Darling please turn around
I'm learning fast that I'm found
This is my life
And I give it all to you
My only life
And it's written down here for you
This is my life
And I give it all to you
My only life
And it's written down here for youIt's written down for you
I gave it all for you
It's written down for you.
