

Siren (Theme from "Home Fires")

Samuel Sim

I can see them talking but I only hear the voices in my head.

Waiting for the moment they'll be calling to me.

And if I try I'll remember all the words I've never said.

Only now the others hold no meaning for me.

And I see with wide-open eyes of blindness.

I'll leave the ever-calling cries in silence.

Every place we go, we shouldn't go.

We see.

We shouldn't see.

We know.

We'll never know.

We'll go.

Then all I want.

All I see.

All I fear is waiting for me.

Now I see.

I'll be.

I see way over.

I see wide open eyes.

I hear ever-calling cries.

I can see them talking but I only hear the voices in my head.

He waits.

I see wide open eyes.

Somewhere we know.

I will be there where he will never be.

Sky is falling.

With wide open eyes.

Ever-calling cries.

I'll be waiting for us now.

Strong enough.

Waiting for me.

I see way over.

With wide open eyes.

I hear ever-calling cries.
