

The Truth

Pnau

It's hard to try
When you're always pushin'
Those thorns in my side
Can't bring back light
When someone has stolen the sun
Turn on blind

Held you in Balmain
Took away your pain
I gave and I gave and I gave
I thought you were the truth

You say you lost your lover
And that you miss your best friend
Till I found there's none in you
Wings of stone I thought you were the truth

You say you lost your lover
And that you miss your best friend
Till I found there's none in you
Wings of stone I thought you were the truth

You were my muse
And the world surrounded you I was so into you
You say you lose
Lost is a luxury baby that you can't choose

Said you were confused
Didn't know what to do
You fake and you fake I was fooled
I thought you were the truth

You say you lost your lover
And that you miss your best friend
Till I found there's none in you
Wings of stone I thought you were the truth

You say you lost your lover
And that you miss your best friend
Till I found there's none in you

Wings of stone I thought you were the truth

Thought you were the sun
Pure warmth shone upon
Thought you were the moon
Oh I fell too soon

You know I met you baby I thought that you were the sun
I felt your presence and your pure warmth shone upon
And then the night fell hard and you were the moon
I rode your waves but I fell too soon

I thought you were the truth

---

Lyrics submitted by Samantha.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>