Fumble

Trey Songz

We were so dumb in love
Couldn't get enough, no
But I could've loved you so much better
And I can't believe you never walked out
And it's not your fault
(Chorus)
That I fumbled your heart
Should've let go of my past for you
You did everything I asked of you
Drive across the country if I asked you to
But I'm just bad for you
I fumbled your heart
I'm bad news, yeah I'm just bad for you
I'm bad news, I fumbled your heart
(Verse)
Girl you used to feel so pound my heart
I wish we could touch some more
(It's eating me alive)
I'm sitting and working on this letter
(I'mma put my feelings down)
The first line I write, I was wrong
So wrong, so wrong, so wrong, so wrong
And it's not your fault
It's so wrong, so wrong, so wrong
(Chorus)
That I fumbled your heart
Should've let go of my past for you
You did everything I asked of you
Travel 'cross the country if I asked you to
But I'm just bad for you
I fumbled your heart
I'm bad news, yeah I'm just bad for you
I'm bad news, I fumbled your heart
(Bridge)
It's all a nothing if you're my only nothing
Want all of you are nothing
I'm sorry that I messed up girl
Really love you, really really love you
You better know I love you

I'll never love another girl
And it's not your fault
(Chorus)
That I fumbled your heart
Should've let go of my past for you
(I should've let go)
You did everything I asked of you
Travel 'cross the country if I asked you to (Never asked you to, I'm just bad for you)
I fumbled your heart
She said I ain't gonna change
Ever since the day we met
That I'm almost sad to say
I dropped the bomb I'm so ashamed
I'm bad news (real bad news)
I fumbled your heart
